

documentCOLUMBIA

the second annual "Week in the Life of Columbia" documentary photo contest

Press Release 11/24/03

the Columbia Daily Tribune, True/False Film Festival and Columbia Photo present:

documentCOLUMBIA

December 7th through the 13th

documentCOLUMBIA is a photography project and contest that calls for photographers of all ages and experience levels to photograph Columbia as they know it. This year, December 7th through the 13th, citizens of Columbia are asked to document their lives and their town for one week. One image from each photographer will be included in a gallery show at the Ragtag Cinemacafe and the Columbia Tribune will host a show of prizewinning images. Participants can submit up to 5 photographs in one of three categories: Professional Photographer, General Citizen, and Children 12 and younger. Entry forms and releases are available at the contest entry sites: Columbia Photo, 9th St. Video, Gerbes Supermarket on Nifong Blvd, and the downtown offices of the Columbia Tribune. Visit www.documentcolumbia.org for more information.

documentCOLUMBIA is sponsored by the Columbia Daily Tribune, True/False Film Festival and Columbia Photo and Electronics.

for further information, visit us at www.documentcolumbia.org or contact SHAUNA BITTLE at 573-443-6477 or at shaunabittle@yahoo.com documentCOLUMBIA is brought to you by the Columbia Daily Tribune, True/False Film Festival, and Columbia Photo and Electronics. Stop by Columbia Photo for all your film and processing needs.

COLUMBIA DAILY
TRIBUNE

COLUMBIA
PHOTO
ELECTRONICS

